ALLEGED POISONERS.

Did They Poison the Non-Union Men at Homestead?

A REVIEW OF THE CHARGES

Against Hugh Dempsey, a Knight of Labor District Master Workman; J. M. Davidson and Robert Beatty—The Doctors Disagreed on the Cause of the Deaths of the Sick Men at Homestead.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 13.—The trial of Hugh Dempsey, district master workman of the Knights of Labor; J. M. Davidson and Robert Beatty, charged with poisoning non-union workmen in the Homestead steel mill during last August, began here Thursday in a crowded court room. Beatty is accused with having arranged with Davidson and other crooks at the mill to administer the poison, which, it is alleged, Dempsey furnished. The serious charge of having procured and disbursed the money used in the furtherance of the scheme is also put upon Dempsey.

History of the Cases.

The cases grow out of the numerous and suspicious cases of illness among the workmen in the Homestead mill. At first those stricken with the sickness showed all the symptoms of typhoid fever and were treated by the physicians for that disease. But after the first few days the typhoid characteristic disappeared and the doctors were unable to diagnose the cases other than "poisoning from impure drinking water."

The Carnegie Steel company was not satisfied with the examination that the epidemic among the workmen was caused by impure water and suspected something wrong somewhere. They put their detectives to work to sift the matter to the bottom.

The result of the detectives' work was the arrest of Robert J. Beatty, at Louisville, on Dec. 10, on a warrant charging him with complicity in the poisoning of men in the Homestead mill. He was brought back to Pittsburgh and given a hearing, at which J. M. Davidson, one of the former cooks of the mill, testified, confessing his own connection with the alleged conspiracy and implicating Beatty and Dempsey. The arrest of Davidson and Dempsey quickly followed, and the trial is the result.

The Trial.

When court opened Judges Slagle and Stowe were on the bench. Attorneys Porter and Marshall for the defense put in a strong plea for postponement of the case on account of the absence of important witnesses, but Judge Stowe was inflexible and ordered the trial to proceed. The first case taken up was that of Dempsey.

Mr. Breck, who is associated with the district attorney for the prosecution, described the situation of the dining sheds and sleeping rooms within the mill enclosures.

At the start he said there were a few cases of sickness, but after July 20 there was a marked increase, and on the 8th of September the sick rate rose sixty or eighty over any other previous day, and all along after that the percentage of sickness was higher. He described how the company became suspicious, and related the arrest, confession and release of Cook Gallagher. He was watched, however, and that led to the arrest of Davidson and Beatty.

The story of the confession was again gone over, how Dempsey suggested croton oil, but they objected and afterwards consented to administer powders that Dempsey said had broken up a Chicago street car strike in a week. Except in one instance, the prosecution will be unable to prove what the poison was. Davidson and Gallagher, he said, will go on the stand and tell their stories, which will be corroborated by other witnesses. Court here took a recess.

A. C. Selden, chief timekeeper at Carnegie, Homestead, was the first witness called for the prosecution. His testimony related mainly to the number of men employed in the works from July 18 to Nov. 1. He also told how the men were fed and lodged inside the mill enclosure. Witness said that neither Hugh F. Dempsey nor Robert Beatty had ever been employed in the Homestead mill.

Louis Wolfe, steward in charge of the cook house, told of the employment of Patrick Gallagher as a cook, of his duties, etc.

DID HE HAVE ANOTHER RELAPSE?
The Appearance of the House Last Night Indicated Such.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—At midnight Thursday night Dr. Hyatt was still in the house and it was observed that he was there for the night, or until relieved by Dr. Johnston, so as to meet and, if possible, counteract any sudden emergency such as that which occasioned the hasty summons of both physicians last evening.

It was understood that the doctors had again to resort to the administration of nitro-glycerine to stimulate the heart's action, and the fact that shortly after midnight bright lights were burning in the room connecting with the sick chamber seemed to indicate that apprehension of further complications was not by any means fully allayed.

The Revolution is Over.

BUENOS AYRES, Jan. 13.—Senor Marco Avellaneda, the confidential agent sent by the federal government to Corrientes, has succeeded in inducing the rebels to lay down their arms, and the attempted revolution is at an end.

CINCINNATI'S NEW BRIDGE BILL

Favorably Considered by the House Committee.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—A favorable report was Thursday made by the commerce committee of the house upon the bill to permit the Cincinnati and Covington Rapid Transit company to build their bridge at a height of 105 feet 4 inches instead of 115 feet, as required by law. It is believed the bill will be finally passed at this session.

The report of the committee on commerce was drawn by Representative Storer, and, among other things, it says: "It is provided by an addition to Section 1 of the bill that the rights and privileges granted shall be null and void if actual construction of this bridge be not begun within one year and completed within three years from the date of approval of this act. The general Ohio river bridge law compels the height of 115 feet above low water. No reasonable necessity can exist for fixing a greater height for the bridge now sought to be built than that of those on either side, if, as is done in this bill by proviso, the existing powers of the secretary of war are reserved to him to order any changes to an increased height of this bridge. As in other cases house bill 9637 is identical in terms with this, with the exception as to the proviso as to the powers of the secretary of the treasury to order a change in the height in the future. Passed both houses in the first session of this congress. The president withheld his signature on account of the absence of any definite proviso in the present bill, which has been done to meet his objection. The bill thus amended has the approval of the secretary of war."

CHICAGO'S GREAT BALL.

The Charity Event the Greatest in the City's History.

CHICAGO, Jan. 13.—Thursday night's charity ball was the greatest in the history of the city. Up to 10 o'clock Thursday morning 5,000 tickets, each calling for two admissions, had been sold. The decorations in the Auditorium almost equal those of the world's fair inaugural ball. Society was out in force.

The occupants of the boxes included the following with their wives: Potter Palmer, Marshall Field, C. L. Hutchinson, John D. Rockefeller, Mrs. H. O. Stone, J. W. Doane, Edson Keith, George L. Dunlap, and other leaders of Chicago's 400.

George M. Pullman would have paid $1,000 for a box, but did not know they were on sale till the last had been disposed of. He, however, paid that amount for an admission ticket.

A HUGE CANAL PROJECT.

Duluth is Greatly Interested and Won't Keep Silent.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—The convention of representatives of commercial bodies and lake interest to organize a movement to unite the great lakes and the ocean by a ship canal convened here Thursday. One hundred delegates were present. S. A. Thompson, of Duluth, made the principal address, saying the proposed canal would increase grain in value ten cents a bushel. He declared, amid much laughter, that Duluth would provide the necessary $100,000,000 to defray the cost, but congress should aid Duluth in some small way. Various committees to urge upon congress the necessity of the canal were appointed.

BUTLER'S FUNERAL POSTPONED

At the Request of Old Soldiers Who Wished to Participate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—Grand Army posts from many parts of the country have telegraphed General Butler's relatives here asking that the funeral of the general be delayed so that they can reach Lowell to participate. For this reason it has been determined that the funeral at Lowell shall not take place until next Monday.

The train bearing the body of General B. F. Butler left Washington at 3:15 o'clock Thursday afternoon for Lowell.

"A Bill to Protect Thieves."

ALBANY, Jan. 13.—There was a hot discussion in the senate Thursday over the bill introduced by Senator McCarthy to legalize the expenditures made in Brooklyn for the Columbus day celebration and for which many Brooklyn officials were indicted. Senator Aspinwall said the bill was a measure to cover up the steal and protect the thieves. The government in Brooklyn was rotten, he declared. The bill was finally sent back to the judiciary committee.

Senator Stanford Ill.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Jan. 13.—Senator Stanford is a very sick man. If he should continue in his present condition and if it should appear that it will be impossible for him to again occupy his seat, he will resign after the adjournment of the legislature.

A Lenient Judge.

CHATTANOOGA, Jan. 13.—In his court Thursday Judge Springfield declared that he would not hold poor people arrested for stealing coal. Several cases were dismissed.

The Populists Recognized.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 13.—At 5:02 o'clock Thursday evening Governor Leawell sent a brief message to the house recognizing the Populist house.

Saratoga's Oldest Inhabitant.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Jan. 13.—David J. Williams, Saratoga's oldest citizen, Thursday celebrated his one hundred and third birthday, having been born in Hartford, Conn., Jan. 12, 1790. He yet retains his mental faculties to a remarkable degree. He expects to live to be one hundred and thirteen years old, at which age he says his father died.

CLOGGED WITH ICE.

The Harbor and Rivers of New York Blocked.

SOMETHING UNPRECEDENTED.

Even The Narrows Was So Filled With Ice Thursday That No Boats Could Force a Way Through—Half the City Tugboats Disabled—Dozens of Boats Fast in the Ice in the Harbor.

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—It has been many years since the harbors and rivers of this city have been so thoroughly blocked by the ice as at present. So dense and compact is the mountain of ice wedged in The Narrows by the ebb tide that no boats dared to force a passage there Thursday, and even the most powerful ocean liner would long hesitate before trying to force her way through the ice barrier.

Ferryboats run only on a go-as-you-please plan. Long Island and New Jersey patrons of the various ferries have been delayed and harassed in innumerable ways, but Staten Island is in even worse shape. Every boat on that line was frozen in Thursday morning, and though some of them were later trying to make trips their runs were Exceedingly Irregular.

A blinding snowstorm, driven by a high wind, aggravated the discomfort and danger by making it impossible for pilots to see far enough ahead to seek out the best channels.

Tugboats Disabled.

The unprecedented ice floes have inside of a few days disabled 250 out of the 500 tug boats in the New York fleet. This condition of things is unknown in the history of tug boating and additional interest can be attached to this statement when it is understood that it has become impossible to repair them owing to the severe weather which has tied up the dry docks.

Almost all the dry docks in this city, Brooklyn and Staten Island have been forced to suspend work.

Floating ice has made the channel buoys in the bay unreliable. Between the upper harbor and Sandy Hook there were no less than in the ice. They could neither come in nor go out.

The schooner Cricket was crushed in the ice in the North river Thursday. The captain and crew had only time enough to save a few personal effects before she went down.

Pilot boat No. 6, the James Gordon Bennett, was caught in floating ice and went ashore at Seabright, N. J. Her crew were taken off by the Seabright life saving crew. The ice ran very heavy Thursday night in the Lower bay.

All the western trains were from three to six hours late.

Postmaster Van Cott issued an order Thursday morning to close all outgoing mails thirty minutes in advance of the usual time on account of the present condition of the streets and the obstruction of the ferry service by ice.

NEWS FROM THE ORIENT.

More Anti-Foreign Riots in China—Great Japanese Holocaust.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 13.—The steamer Gaelic arrived from Hong Kong and Yokohama Thursday morning bringing the following advices:

Ichang, China, has been the scene of another anti-foreign riot, but the disturbance was soon quelled by a force of blue jackets from a British man-of-war. The riot was precipitated by an old woman, who proclaimed to her countrymen that the foreigners had desecrated the graves of one of her ancestors.

A spinning mill at Osaka, Japan, was burned Dec. 20 last, with a loss of 125 lives. Most of the victims were young girls. Two hundred and seventy houses in the vicinity of the mill caught fire from sparks and were destroyed. The fire was caused by the breaking of one of the belts.

The officers of the Peninsular and Oriental company steamer Ravenna which run down and sank the Japanese torpedo boat Chishima, causing a loss of over ninety of the crew, have been exonerated.

The emperor has recovered from his illness, but the crown prince is still sick.

Switchmen Strike.

MUNCIE, Ind., Jan. 13.—Wednesday night the switchmen in the Lake Erie and Western railroad yards went on strike. The men were paid $2 and $2.25 per day, and asked for $2.50 and $2.75 per day. The company wanted time to consider the matter, when the committee ordered the men to strike. About twenty-five men are out.

Bad Wreck Reported.

MAYSVILLE, Ky., Jan. 13.—News has been received here of a wreck at Dover. The westbound Maysville accommodation train collided with a freight and it is reported that the engineer, fireman and six passengers on the accommodation were killed. The railroad officers are close-mouthed and particulars are meagre.

A Dollar Poll Tax Necessary.

LITTLE ROCK, Jan. 13.—In the joint session of the general assembly yesterday the amendment requiring payment of $1 poll tax a necessary qualification for voting, was declared a part of the constitution, having been legally ratified at the September election.

PRODUCTIVE OIL WELLS.

The Jay County (Ind.) Field is Fast Developing Many Valuable Wells.

PORTLAND, Ind., Jan. 13.—The Jay county oil field is coming to the front. There are now about 200 wells, the majority of them being good producers. Jackson township has a number of paying ones, but the best are found in the vicinity of Camden, twelve miles from here. Several have been drilled there which pump 250 to 300 barrels a day, and one on the Criswell farm is said to pump 800 to 1,000 barrels. Mr. Criswell's income from the oil on his place is over $100 a day. There is no refinery here and all of the product is piped to Chicago in its crude state and there used for fuel. The field has been equipped with supply houses and telegraph lines for the convenience of the operators, and during the month of December produced about 50,000 barrels of oil.

CONGRESS.

Both Houses Attend the Funeral of the Late Senator Kenna.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—Thursday both houses attended the funeral of the late Senator Kenna, of West Virginia, in the senate chamber. But little else was done by either branch. The special train left for Charleston, W. Va., about midnight Thursday night.

Murder in a Chicago Saloon.

CHICAGO, Jan. 13.—Michael Gourke, a Pole, twenty-five years old, and unmarried, was shot and instantly killed by Joseph Wedelsteadt in the latter's saloon, 3156 Fox street, at 3 o'clock yesterday morning. Wedelsteadt and his wife, both under the influence of liquor, were arrested. At the police station Wedelsteadt said he shot Gourke in self-defense. The man insisted on being served with liquor in violation of the midnight closing ordinance, and said if Wedelsteadt refused it would be the life of one or the other. The saloon keeper said the man struck him a violent blow with his revolver.

Patton Tunnel Again in Danger.

ENGLISHT, Ind., Jan. 13.—The condition of the Patton tunnel, on the Louisville, Evansville and St. Louis line, which caved in with such enormous loss last winter, is so critical as to attract the personal attention of the railway officials. A telegraph office has been established at the west end, and a corps of carpenters will remain on duty until after the present rush of freight traffic. It is the ultimate purpose either to blast the tunnel and make a "cut," or else reconstruct it on the most approved plan.

Double Lynching at Gaston, Ky.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 13.—A mob of over 200 armed men Wednesday afternoon, at Gaston, Meade county, took Ed and Dick Moorman, negroes, from a store, where they were confined awaiting officers, and hanged them to a flagpole in front of the postoffice. The negroes were accused of murdering a farmer near Gaston last Monday. Before they were strung up Ed Moorman confessed that they had committed the murder for the purpose of robbery.

Senator Turpie Renominated.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 13.—The Democrats of the house and senate held a joint caucus Thursday night and renominated Senator David Turpie by a vote of 97 to 1 for John G. Shanklin, of Evansville. Senator Turpie made a speech accepting the nomination, and congratulated the caucus that his new term would be coincident with the beginning of an administration which would be Democratic.

Quebec Parliament Opened.

QUEBEC, Jan. 13.—The second session of the Tenth provincial parliament was formally opened Thursday by the lieutenant governor, Hon. J. A. Chapleau. He announced that the financial situation of the province which had so long been the cause for anxiety, had greatly improved and the ordinary receipts, apart from new sources of revenue, would exceed the expectations of the government.

Ohio Penitentiary Statistics.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 13.—The managers of the penitentiary paroled fifty-eight prisoners between Nov. 1, 1891, and Oct. 31, 1892, making 820 paroled since the parole law went into effect on May 4, 1885. The total expense of the penitentiary during the twelve months named was $257,440, and the per capita expense $549.15.

The Ohio Solid at Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 13.—From shore to shore the river here Thursday morning was frozen for a distance of thirteen miles. River men are very anxious, the situation being a critical one. The breaking of the gorge above will cause a collapse of the one here and a consequent destruction of shipping property.

Impending Troubles Averted.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 13.—The impending troubles between the Big Four operators and the company has been averted, and it is a question as to which side won the victory. The operators did not get all they asked for, but got an increase that the company say will amount to $24,000 a year.

Saved $5,000 in Prison.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., Jan. 13.—Captain Isaac M. Sanders, of Brazil, pardoned by Governor Chase, is the richest man who ever left the prison south by extra work and accumulation of pension. He has saved $5,000. He was imprisoned for killing his wife. He left for Terre Haute.

Ohio Wool Growers.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 13.—The Ohio wool growers were addressed by Governor McKinley. He advised them to stand firm for a protective tariff and make their influence felt in congress. Some officers re-elected. President Lawrence delivered a lengthy address.

DISAPPOINTED.

THE SUCCESSOR OF M. FLOQUET.

As President of That Body—He Makes a Speech in Which He Says Individual Failures Will Not Be Allowed to Block the Progress of the Republic or Shake Its Firm Foundations.

PARIS, Jan. 13.—Immediately after the deputies came to order Thursday M. Casimir-Perier, the successor of M. Floquet as president of the chamber, made his inaugural address to the chamber. He spoke briefly and forcibly. Individual failures, he said, would not block the progress of the republic nor shake its firm foundations. The government was anxious to punish the evil doers according to their crimes, and the ordinary instruments of justice provided by laws and constitution would be found sufficient for the purpose.

M. Perier's address was received with only moderate applause, as the deputies had expected a much more elaborate statement.

Henri Chassaing, Socialist-Republican, made a motion to the effect that persons making false accusation in connection with the Panama scandal be subject to certain specified penalties of the law. The chamber refused to recognize the urgency of this motion.

M. Hubbard, Radical deputy of the Seine-et-Oise, interpellated the government as to the date of the next general elections, at the same time advising that as early a date as possible be fixed.

Albert Chiche, Boulangist deputy for Gironde, supplemented M. Hubbard's interpellation and requested by demanding in a short violent speech, the immediate dissolution of the chamber and the appointment of a constituent assembly.

M. Ribot, in replying to M. Hubbard, touched upon M. Chassaing's proposal in saying that the law must be left to accomplish its ends, without interference, as it was provided with fully adequate means for the work in hand. It was impossible to fix the date of the elections even approximately. M. Ribot then demanded the order of the day, and was sustained by a vote of 329 to 206.

WILL THE BANKS LOSE?

Effect of Huntington's Death on the Paige Forgeries.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 13.—Great interest is manifested here in the effect John Huntington's death will have upon the famous Paige forgeries. David R. Paige, it will be remembered, placed more than $500,000 of paper bearing the alleged endorsement of Mr. Huntington, who was Paige's brother-in-law and a Standard oil millionaire, which Mr. Huntington has pronounced to be forgeries.

Huntington was very ill at the time, and Paige's course is generally considered by Mr. Huntington's friends as one of the most infamous conspiracies on record. Had the paper not come to light till now there could have been no proof of its fraudulent character.

As it is, some doubts are expressed about it, and many believe the banks which hold the paper stand a better chance of collecting than before Mr. Huntington's death. His representatives here say, however, that he has foiled the conspirators completely by leaving affidavits which fully protect his estate against the forged paper.

A Perilous Trip.

GREEN RIVER, U. T., Jan. 13.—The twin screw launch Major Powell started from the mouth of San Rafael river Wednesday evening for her trip through the cataract canon of Colorado river. The craft made the twelve miles in an hour, being thrown from side to side of the stream in a helpless condition. She managed to escape the rocks, but at the mouth of the cataract she struck a snag and sank. Every one escaped. This is the first trip ever made by a craft of her size.

Looks Like a Deadlock.

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 13.—Governor Peck read his message to the Wisconsin legislature, Thursday, in person. He congratulated the state upon the verdict of the supreme court giving the state judgment for interest received by the ex-treasurers on public funds deposited by them in the banks. The legislature adjourned till Tuesday when the senators' fight will begin in earnest. It begins to have the appearance of a long struggle, with the possibility of a deadlock.

Falling Off in Cotton.

FORT SMITH, Ark., Jan. 13.—A table has been completed of the receipts of cotton at various neighboring points for the past two years. They show that the total receipts for 1892 at eleven points in Arkansas and the Indian Territory are 51,671 bales. For the previous year at the same points the receipts were 122,261.

Will Fight the Whisky Trust.

BOSTON, Jan. 13.—It is understood that the wholesale liquor dealers in Boston have nearly completed arrangements to purchase the Mattingly distillery of Louisville. The price is said to be $300,000, and $235,000 has already been raised. It is said the distillery will be operated against the whisky trust.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 13.—A joint resolution providing for an investigation of the "sweating" shops in Chicago was adopted by acclamation Thursday in both houses of the legislature.

The Ladies.

The pleasant effect and perfect safety with which ladies use the California liquid laxative Syrup of Figs, under all conditions, make it their favorite remedy. To get the true and genuine article, look for the name of the California Fig Syrup Co., printed near the bottom of package.

Acid Prevention of Cholera.

In previous epidemics the value of sulphuric and sulphurous acids as preventives was demonstrated, and when Koch discovered his comma bacillus he also noted that its cultivation was possible only in alkaline media, and that acids destroyed it. In corroboration of these findings, Niemeyer, who wrote long before anything of this nature was known, records that the ileum, or lower small intestine, is the main seat of the pathological changes caused by cholera. This lower small intestine is the most alkaline and the farthest from the normally acid stomach. The large intestine, being acid, does not suffer.—Science.

Stole His Stories.

Stephen Bonsal, the young American newspaper man, whose story of the quarrel at Fez between the British Minister and the Sultan was recently the sensation of the day in England, has an extensive rod in pickle for F. Hopkinson Smith. Mr. Bonsal says that he met Mr. Smith on the Bulgarian frontier, and sat up all night telling him stories of travel and adventures in the interior of the country. Great was his surprise when he found that the author had made these incidents the basis of a magazine article, written as if from the standpoint of Mr. Smith's personal experience and observation.—London Letter.

Three Bits of Calico.

Three pieces of the first calico printed in the United States will be presented to the World's fair commissioners for exhibition through Commodore Bradley, one of the best known men in northern New York, who got them from Judge Waldron, of North Creek. The calico was printed at Johnsburg, Warren county, and one of the pieces is from the wedding dress of the first lady married in that town.—Albany Argus.

Crowds at a Poet's Grave.

So great have been the crowds that have visited Whittier's grave since Saturday that it has been necessary to put a special police guard around the lot. Every one who comes wants to carry away a leaf or flower as a memento, and if this were allowed the grave would be entirely stripped of everything of the kind. Sunday between 1,700 and 1,800 persons on foot and 150 teams visited the grave.—Exchange.

CARLISLE.

The World Pays Kentucky's Distinguished Son a Compliment.

If He Has Decided to Accept the Treasury Portfolio, the People Are to be Congratulated.

New York World: "It is the general impression that Senator John G. Carlisle is to be Secretary of the Treasury under President Cleveland. This is now regarded in Washington as certain," says the World's staff correspondent.

"Mr. Cleveland and the country are to be congratulated if the report shall prove true. During his public service Mr. Carlisle has demonstrated the possession of a positive genius for public finance. There is no man in the country who approaches him in a rare combination of qualities—a thorough grasp of the intricacies of Treasury subjects, a wonderful lucidity in their exposition and a single purpose to reach and establish the truth and to promote the public interests.

"The country at large is familiar with Mr. Carlisle's views on the tariff question, and with his intimate acquaintance not only with the details of past and present laws, but with the characteristics and needs of the country's industries. No man could be elected Secretary of the Treasury who would be so helpful to Congress in framing a bill for the reform of the existing tariff law.

"But Mr. Carlisle's range and value go far beyond this. In 1879 he made a report on excise laws which resulted in introducing into our then crude and barbarous internal revenue system an amendment which treated the tax-payers fairly and justly, while the coffers of the Government were benefited.

"Mr. Carlisle is the author, too, of an amendment which resulted in the protection of the Treasury and the business community from the attacks that had been made by the national banks whenever an effort was set on foot to reduce interest on the public bonds held by them. In 1881 Congress undertook to provide for refunding at 3½ per cent. the bonds then falling due. The banks resisted and a large amount of circulation was at once surrendered and a panic threatened. The Hayes administration and the Republicans in the House took alarm and insisted that the Government should surrender to the banks. Mr. Carlisle thereupon introduced what was known as the "Carlisle amendments," which limited the power of the banks to surrender circulation. The amendment was adopted, but Mr. Hayes vetoed the bill under the advice of Secretary Sherman.

"One of the first acts of the Garfield administration, however, was the adoption of the Carlisle idea and its enactment into law. Then, and on account of it, Secretary Windom was enabled to carry out his own extra-legislative refunding scheme.

"Mr. Carlisle's attitude on silver has been questioned by a Boston newspaper. The criticism is decidedly unjust. Mr. Carlisle's views on silver are substantially in harmony with Mr. Cleveland's. He is in favor of repealing the Sherman law and not in favor of free coinage. No advocate of sound currency, no friend of safe banking, no believer in a system of taxation that shall produce the revenue needed with the lightest possible burden on the people, will be disappointed in any utterance or plan of Mr. Carlisle.

"If he accepts the Treasury portfolio he will render the country a service for which it will always be grateful."

Railway News.

The C. and O.'s freight business at this place amounted to $5,265.13 in December, an increase of $1,077.72 over the receipts for the corresponding period in 1891.

The L. and N.'s business at this point in December amounted to $791.99 more than in December the year before. Following are the figures: 1892, $4,805.94; 1891, $3,513.85.

The Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, for the six months ending December 31, earned all fixed charges and a surplus of $400,000. Included in operating expenses for the six months are an entire year's supply of rails and ties, and a large amount for filling trestles, ballast and other permanent work. The improvements of the last four years have brought the road up to the highest standard, and it is now demonstrating what its friends have always claimed for it, viz: That when thoroughly modernized, as it now is, it can be operated cheaper than almost any other road in the country, by reason of its low grades and exceptional location.

The bond of Deputy Marshal John Mangan, with John Ryan, Sam. T. Hickman, H. G. Wells and W. W. Gault as sureties, was presented and accepted.

The bond of Deputy Marshal Bland was presented and accepted. The sureties are J. L. Browning, W. H. Yancey, Mose Daulton, George L. Cox and John C. Kirk.

Deputy Marshal Crawford's bond was also accepted. His sureties were Horatio Ficklin, Geo. N. Crawford, C. P. Beckett and Martin Bros.

Deputy Marshal Stockdale's bond was presented and accepted. His sureties are W. B. Mathews and Simon Nelson.

Deputy Marshal Medlin presented his bond, with T. M. Pearce, Horatio Ficklin and H. H. Collins as sureties, which was accepted.

The Deputy Marshals were afterwards sworn in, Mayor Pearce administering the oath.

Mr. Ficklin, as Chairman of the Committee on Claims and Accounts, read the committee's settlements with the various city officers for the past year. The settlement with the outgoing Treasurer showed the following:

Coupons paid.....	$5,844 45
Bonds paid.....	7,000 00
Interest paid.....	840 00
School notes paid.....	2,860 00
General fund paid.....	14,000 00
Total.....	$30,484 45

Mr. Cochran, the retiring Treasurer, turned over to his successor the following:

General fund.....	$ 498 86
White school fund.....	797 32
Colored school fund.....	325 32
Total.....	$1,621 50

The committee found that the city was indebted to ex-Treasurer R. A. Cochran, Jr., in the sum of $460.29, commission on taxes collected; to Mayor Pearce, in the sum of $425.30 costs worked out and to James N. Kehoe City Attorney, in the sum of $19, costs worked out. The Clerk was directed to draw orders for the amounts named. Deputy Marshal Stockdale was allowed $27.42, commission on delinquent taxes collected.

The committee in its settlement with the estate of the late Marshal James Heflin found a balance due the city of $91.16 on delinquent taxes collected. The donation made by Council to Mrs. Heflin was $225. After deducting house rent for three months, $37.50, and the said balance due on delinquent taxes collected, $91.16, there was a balance of $96.34 due Mrs. Heflin, which was ordered paid.

The Clerk was directed to list the delinquent taxes with Marshal Fitzgerald for collection.

The following accounts were allowed: L. and N. Railroad $2.20, transporting a boy to Lexington on order of Mayor; F. Bauer, $2, printin.

The bid of McIlvain, Humphreys & Bramel for burying paupers was accepted, and the firm was elected city undertakers. The rates are $10.25 for a person over twelve years of age, and $7.25 for persons under that age.

Deputy Marshal Stockdale was allowed $60.15, 10 per cent. commission on fines and old bond collected.

Mr. Wadsworth offered a resolution to add a committee on water to the list of standing committees, and declaring those committees that heretofore consisted of only five members shall from this on consist of six members. The rules were suspended and the resolution was adopted. The addition of the extra member was thought proper on account of the addition of the Sixth ward.

Horace Outten and John Ryan were nominated for city clock keeper. Mr. Ficklin wanted to nominate Mr. Hopper, but he declined. The ballot resulted: Outten 10, Ryan 5. Mr. Outten was declared elected.

The Committee on Laws, by request of Marshal Fitzgerald, was authorized to prepare an ordinance adding an additional fee of 50 cents to the costs in each criminal case before the Mayor, to help defray the cost of confining prisoners in the county jail.

The Mayor was authorized to swear in John D. Roe as a private policeman, to serve without pay from the city.

WITH TERRIFIC FORCE,

Did Two O. and O. Trains Come Together—Additional Particulars of the Wreck

Brief mention was made yesterday of the wreck that occurred early in the morning below South Ripley. The accident happened at "Hanna's Grove," a half mile east of Dover.

An eastbound through freight, drawn by engine No. 341, was behind time and endeavoring to make the siding at South Ripley. It was met at the grove by engine 33, drawing the Maysville accommodation, which was also five minutes late. Both trains were running at full speed and came together with terrific force.

Engine 33 was stripped, the forward trucks were mashed, the tender driven into the baggage car, but the coaches were not damaged. Engine 341, being a large "hog" engine, was not damaged so badly except the tender which is a complete wreck.

Two cars of miscellaneous freight were completely telescoped. Neither engine left the track. No lives were lost. The engineers and firemen of both trains jumped and escaped any serious injury. Mr. C. W. Hall, engineer of the passenger train, was bruised about the legs. Mr. Arch Scudder Express Messenger, was slightly cut about the head, Mr. T. W. Pinckard, Superintendent of pumps, was hurt internally, and cut about the head by a car seat falling on him. Some others received a few cuts and scratches.

The collision was due to the freight train running on the accommodation's time, in trying to make the siding at South Ripley. It was about one o'clock before the track was cleared.

Mr. Pinckard and Mr. Hall reside in this city. Both were able to be about this morning.

Engineer Quinlan, of the freight train, skipped out immediately after the collision, and could not be found. A colored man who was working in the grove and was close by when the accident happened says the engineer of the freight was asleep at the time.

ITALY'S NAVAL POWER.

ROME, Jan. 13.—Admiral Racchia, the successor of the late Admiral Paerotti in the ministry of marine, was interviewed in regard to Italy's future naval and military policy. Admiral Racchia said that in the next budget for the navy he would propose an increased appropriation for the instruction of officers and seamen, but it was not true that he therefore intended to expend less money for new ships.

With regard to mobilization he would complete the late Minister San Bon's scheme of providing each reserve ship with an ample equipment and crew. By adhering to this plan, he said, the entire navy could be mobilized within twenty-four hours. He thought that, although England and France had more vessels afloat than Italy had, Italy was better able than either of those powers to mobilize her navy. He paid a high tribute to the excellence of the Austrian navy, whose strength he ascribed to its independence of cabinet crisis and its freedom from the vexations usually attending such crises.

Replying to further questions, with reference to the French works at Bizerta, in Tunis, Admiral Racchia said that it was absolutely necessary to complete at the earliest possible date the Italian works at Taranto, and that he would devote all his energies to the task of finishing those works. That, he said, would be the best answer to make to France. He was sure, however, that the reports about the French works at Bizerta had been exaggerated and that all that had been done up to the present time was the making of a narrow channel to be used only by torpedo vessels.

Years of work and millions of money would be required to make Bizerta a great military post. On the other hand Taranto would be impregnable and would suffice to defend the whole coast of southern Italy, including Sicily.

TEN REAL CANDIDATES.

No Scarcity of Timber in the Old Commonwealth.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Jan. 13.—Senator Carlisle was closeted here Wednesday for an hour with Governor Brown and it has started gossip to the effect that the senator has left his resignation as senator, which will be made public at the proper time. The senatorial race is now well open and candidates are hustling night and day for votes. The hotel lobbies are alive with politicians. A letter was received here Thursday from Congressman Breckinridge, of Lexington, stating that he will be a candidate. Ex-Governors Knott and Buckner will arrive tonight and probably enter the race at once. There will be at least ten real candidates.

Broken Rail Causes a Wreck.

DOWNINGTOWN, Pa., Jan. 13.—Thursday morning, as the early passenger train from Lancaster over the Downingtown and Lancaster railroad reached here, a rail broke and one of the cars was hurled violently from the track and overturned. Peter Daupman, a bank director of Honey Brook, was seriously injured internally, and James Fettes, Samuel Ludwig and a little girl sustained severe injuries. The rest of the passengers were gotten safely out.

That Franco-Russian Protocol.

VIENNA, Jan. 13.—The Wiener Tageblatt publishes what is claimed to be an inspired synopsis of the Franco-Russian convention, or protocol, that was signed by France and Russia last November. According to this convention each nation in the event of war is to place 600,000 troops in the field within six weeks. Ultimately, each country is to place 1,200,000 soldiers in the field. Neither nation is to conclude peace without the other also agrees to it.

A Centenarian's Sudden Death.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Jan. 13.—Louis Baker died suddenly at his home in this city Thursday in the one hundred and first year of his age. He had been in his usual health and passed away while sleeping on a lounge. Mr. Baker was a farmer by occupation. Up to the time of his death he was far from feeble and had all of his faculties, except that he was somewhat deaf. He did not even wear glasses.

Coldest in a Hundred Years.

OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 13.—Owing to the extreme weather a complete bridge of ice covers what is known as the Big Kettle, extending from a distance of about one hundred feet below the suspension bridge to within fifty feet of the foot of the falls. The bridge is composed of frozen foam heaped to a height of six or eight feet and so solid that several people have crossed it. This is the first time in a hundred years that these boiling waters have frozen over.

Governor-Elect Turney Seriously Ill.

NASHVILLE, Jan. 13.—There is serious doubt whether Chief Justice Peter Turney, governor-elect of Tennessee, will be able to leave his home in Winchester and come to Nashville next Monday to be inaugurated. He is very slowly recovering from his illness, and his physician fears it will be risky too much to have the judge come to Nashville on the 16th.

He Made Life Unbearable.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 13.—The military convicts confined on Alcatraz Island Thursday attacked Prison Sergeant Duffy and were only prevented from killing him by the interference of an armed guard. They state that his treatment of them has made life unbearable. He was badly hurt, and the convicts declare that they will repeat the dose when he recovers.

Favor Sunday Opening.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 13.—Sunday opening of the world's fair won a signal victory in the Illinois legislature Thursday. The matter came up on a resolution declaring in favor of opening the fair and asking the Illinois members of congress to vote that way. A motion to lay it on the table was indignantly beaten—21 yeas and 109 nays.

CONDENSED NEWS.

Ex-Congressman Carlos French, of Seymour, was nominated for United States senator by the Connecticut Democrats.

The proposed exhibition of public school methods of Brooklyn at the world's fair has been abandoned by the board of education.

H. Clay Evans, of Tennessee, recently appointed first assistant postmaster general, arrived in Washington Thursday morning and immediately entered upon his duties.

Richard Croker, of New York, was asked Thursday if the report from Albany, that he had criticized Senator Hill's alleged interference with the work of the New York electoral college was true. He answered: "I won't say anything about it. No, I won't say whether it is true or not."

A bill has been introduced into the Illinois legislature to protect members of labor organizations by fining anyone who shall discharge or threaten to discharge union men merely because they are union men. Similar bills will be introduced into all legislatures now in session by labor members.
